

STEP 1

Select a good site

Avoid water logged, rocky, shady and steep gradients. Avoid a field which had the same crop from the previous season

STEP 2

Seed selection-choose right variety

STEP 3

Land preparation

Clear the bushes

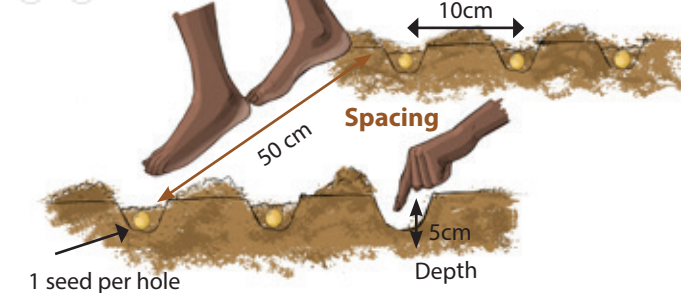

1st and 2nd ploughing

STEP 4

Use recommended plant spacing

Plant density (30-40kg)

1 cup + 1 cup = 1 Kg

STEP 5

Keep the garden away from weeds

STEP 6

Control Pests and diseases

Resistant seed

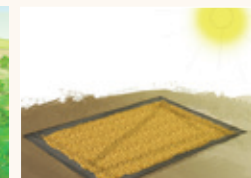

Proper weeding

Proper weeding

Spray with Pesticides

Proper Drying

Proper storage

Crop Rotation

STEP 6 Use fertilizers

Apply Rhizobia before Planting seed coating 350 grams for 20kgs

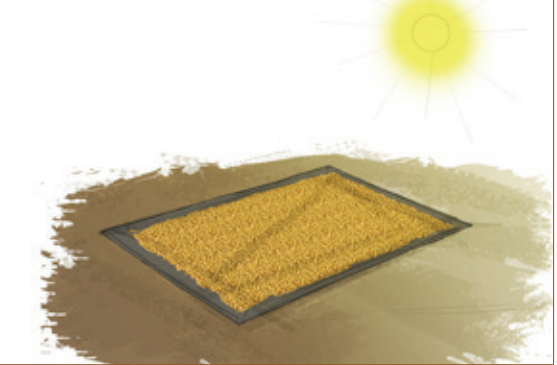

Apply NPK at 2nd ploughing

STEP 7 Timely and correct harvesting

STEP 8 Drying and shelling

STEP 9 Cleaning and winnowing

STEP 10 Bagging and Storage

Add value to your pigeon peas

DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVE FOR NORTHERN UGANDA (DINU)

Good Agronomic Practices (GAP) Soy Beans

Implemented By:

DINU - A Government of Uganda Programme supported by the European Union and Supervised by Office of the Prime Minister

Acknowledgements

Designed and produced by Extraz Industrial Graphics

Contributing Authors & Reviewers

Dr. Yona Baguma – NARO, Abasi Kigozi –NARO, Winnie Nanteza – NARO, Kumakech Alfred – NARO, Tom Omara – NARO, Agnes Alajo – NARO, Dr. Kalule Okello – NARO, Kabayi Paul – NARO, Angiro Christopher–NARO, Nviri Geoffrey – NARO, Annet Nakayima – NARO, Rita Kayen – PalmCorps, Jonathan Katende – Sasakawa Africa Association, Julius Semyalo – Solidaridad, Lubega Abdul – AGRENES, Ssemwanga Mohammed– AGRENES, Tom Omita – Lira University, Ssekandi Wilber – NARO, Rehema Naluyimba – NARO, Joshua Muhumuza – NARO, Victoria Mbigidde – NARO, Kasigwa Hawad – NARO, Adeline Muheebwa – AUWPEA, Alice Mango – AUWPEA, Carol Nabasirye – Lira University

Concepts & Technical Support by Maonzi Creatives led by Monica Kansime

This work has been funded by the Chase Poverty & Hunger Action under the DINU Project funded by the European Union and supervised by Office of the Prime Minister